

Native Plants for Rewilding

Pulai Trail Community Forest - Bangsar Ecological Connector

1. Choose a variety of different sized shrubs to layer your native garden.
2. Consider available space and light when making a selection.
3. Naturally attract more birds and butterflies!

SMALL

SMALL -MEDIUM

MEDIUM

A collaboration prioritizing ecological support by

Native Plants for Rewilding

Support the Bangsar Ecological Connector by planting the following!

PLANT ID		THINGS TO CONSIDER
Common Name	Scientific Name	Sunlight	Bird Friendly	Butterfly Friendly
Small Plants - Suitable for planting in gardens of all sizes. This includes being able to plant in pots, suitable for balcony gardens.
Silver Queen	Aglaonema commutatum
Shell ginger	Alpinia zerumbet
Crepe ginger	Costus speciosus
Kantan	Etilingera elatior
Dancing Girls	Globba spp
Gandarsuli	Hedychium coronarium
Cekur Batik	Kaempferia galanga
Peacock fern	Selaginella willdenowii
Black Bat Lily	Tacca chantrieri

Native Plants for Rewilding

Support the Bangsar Ecological Connector by planting the following!

PLANT ID		THINGS TO CONSIDER
Common Name	Scientific Name	Sunlight	Bird Friendly	Butterfly Friendly
Medium - Shrubs at 1-2m tall. Suitable for small gardens and above.
Pagoda plant	Clerodendrum paniculatum
Limau kasturi	Citrus aurantifolia
Limau kasturi	Citrus x microcarpa
Akar mempisang	Desmos chinensis
Daun kari	Bergera koenigii
Kemuning	Murraya paniculata
Kemunting	Rhodomyrtus tomentosa
Senduduk	Melastoma malabathricum
Tapak kuda	Phanera kokiana
Large Trees - Suitable for large sized gardens. Plant at least 4-5m away from buildings, walls, drains, and other infrastructure.
Putat	Barringtonia racemosa
Kelat paya	Syzygium myrtifolium
Cengkik	Syzygium aromaticum
Cempedak	Artocarpus integer			